Dear Parents, Guardians, and Caregivers,

Be sure to ask your child what happened at school today! If you haven't already heard.... I kissed a pig! Why on earth would I kiss a pig?? To improve bus behavior, of course! In an effort to maintain and improve behavior on the bus, I challenged students to earn 100 bus "shout outs." I am proud to share that Johnson School students earned 257 bus "shout outs" for good behavior. As promised, I gave Hamilton a smooch! This morning we also celebrated our Johnson Pride nominees at our monthly assembly. Congratulations to all of the nominees, we are so proud of you for consistently demonstrating Johnson Pride!

Another PBIS incentive for students is to personally earn 100 Johnson Pride stamps. Students who earn 100 or more stamps will have the incredible opportunity to select their favorite Earth Day movie to be shown at Bethel Cinema on June 21st. Information on this field trip will be sent home soon. This trip was fully funded by our Johnson PBIS activities so thank you for all of your support!

Very truly yours,
Alison Salerno
Principal

Fun News!

Mrs. Salerno promised to "kiss a pig" if our students earned at least 100 bus shout outs from our drivers for showing Johnson pride on the bus.

Well...Johnson students earned 257!!!! Talk about hitting it out of the park! Congratulations Johnson students for continuing to show Johnson pride both in school and on the bus!

WE CAN'T HIDE OUR JOHNSON PRIDE!

Special thank you to the Boyer family for letting Mrs. Salerno kiss Hamilton, and thanks Mrs. Salerno for being such a good sport!
